The Cultural Center, on the Berkeley Street side of 132-34 Beacon, was established in 1970 to enhance the educational, cultural, and social needs of the campus community. It serves as the headquarters for the College's AHANA students.

Have You Seen Them All?

The Many Buildings of Emerson College

(Above) A building that stands the test of time. Emerson's Cutler Majestic Theatre, built in 1903, was remodeled in 2003 and is now better than ever. This is where Emerson's Orientation Leaders welcomed the 2003 freshmen with song and dance.

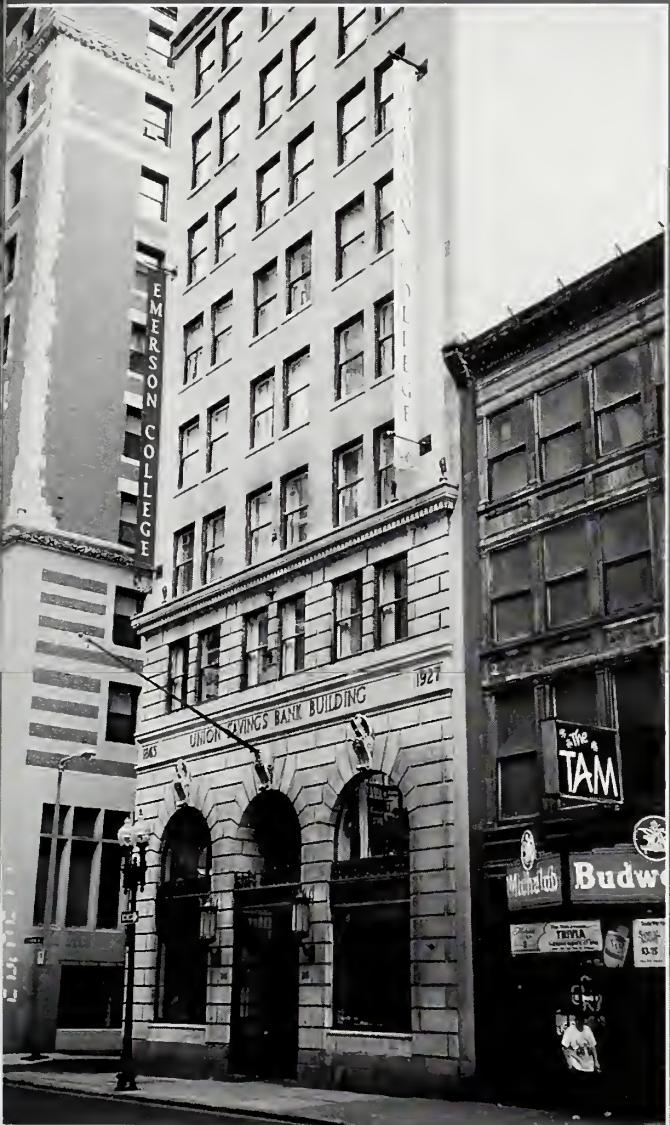

(Right) Squeezed next to Pravda 116 sits the Walker Building, or 120 Boylston. Students visit the Office of Admissions, the library, and numerous classes while in this building. 120 is also conveniently attached to Emerson's newest building, the Tufte, for those cold winter days when walking around the corner to the actual entrance is simply impossible!

(Above) Another classic. 180 Tremont, otherwise known as the Ansin Building is the home to WERS, a digital production lab, and the offices of many professors—just to name a few!

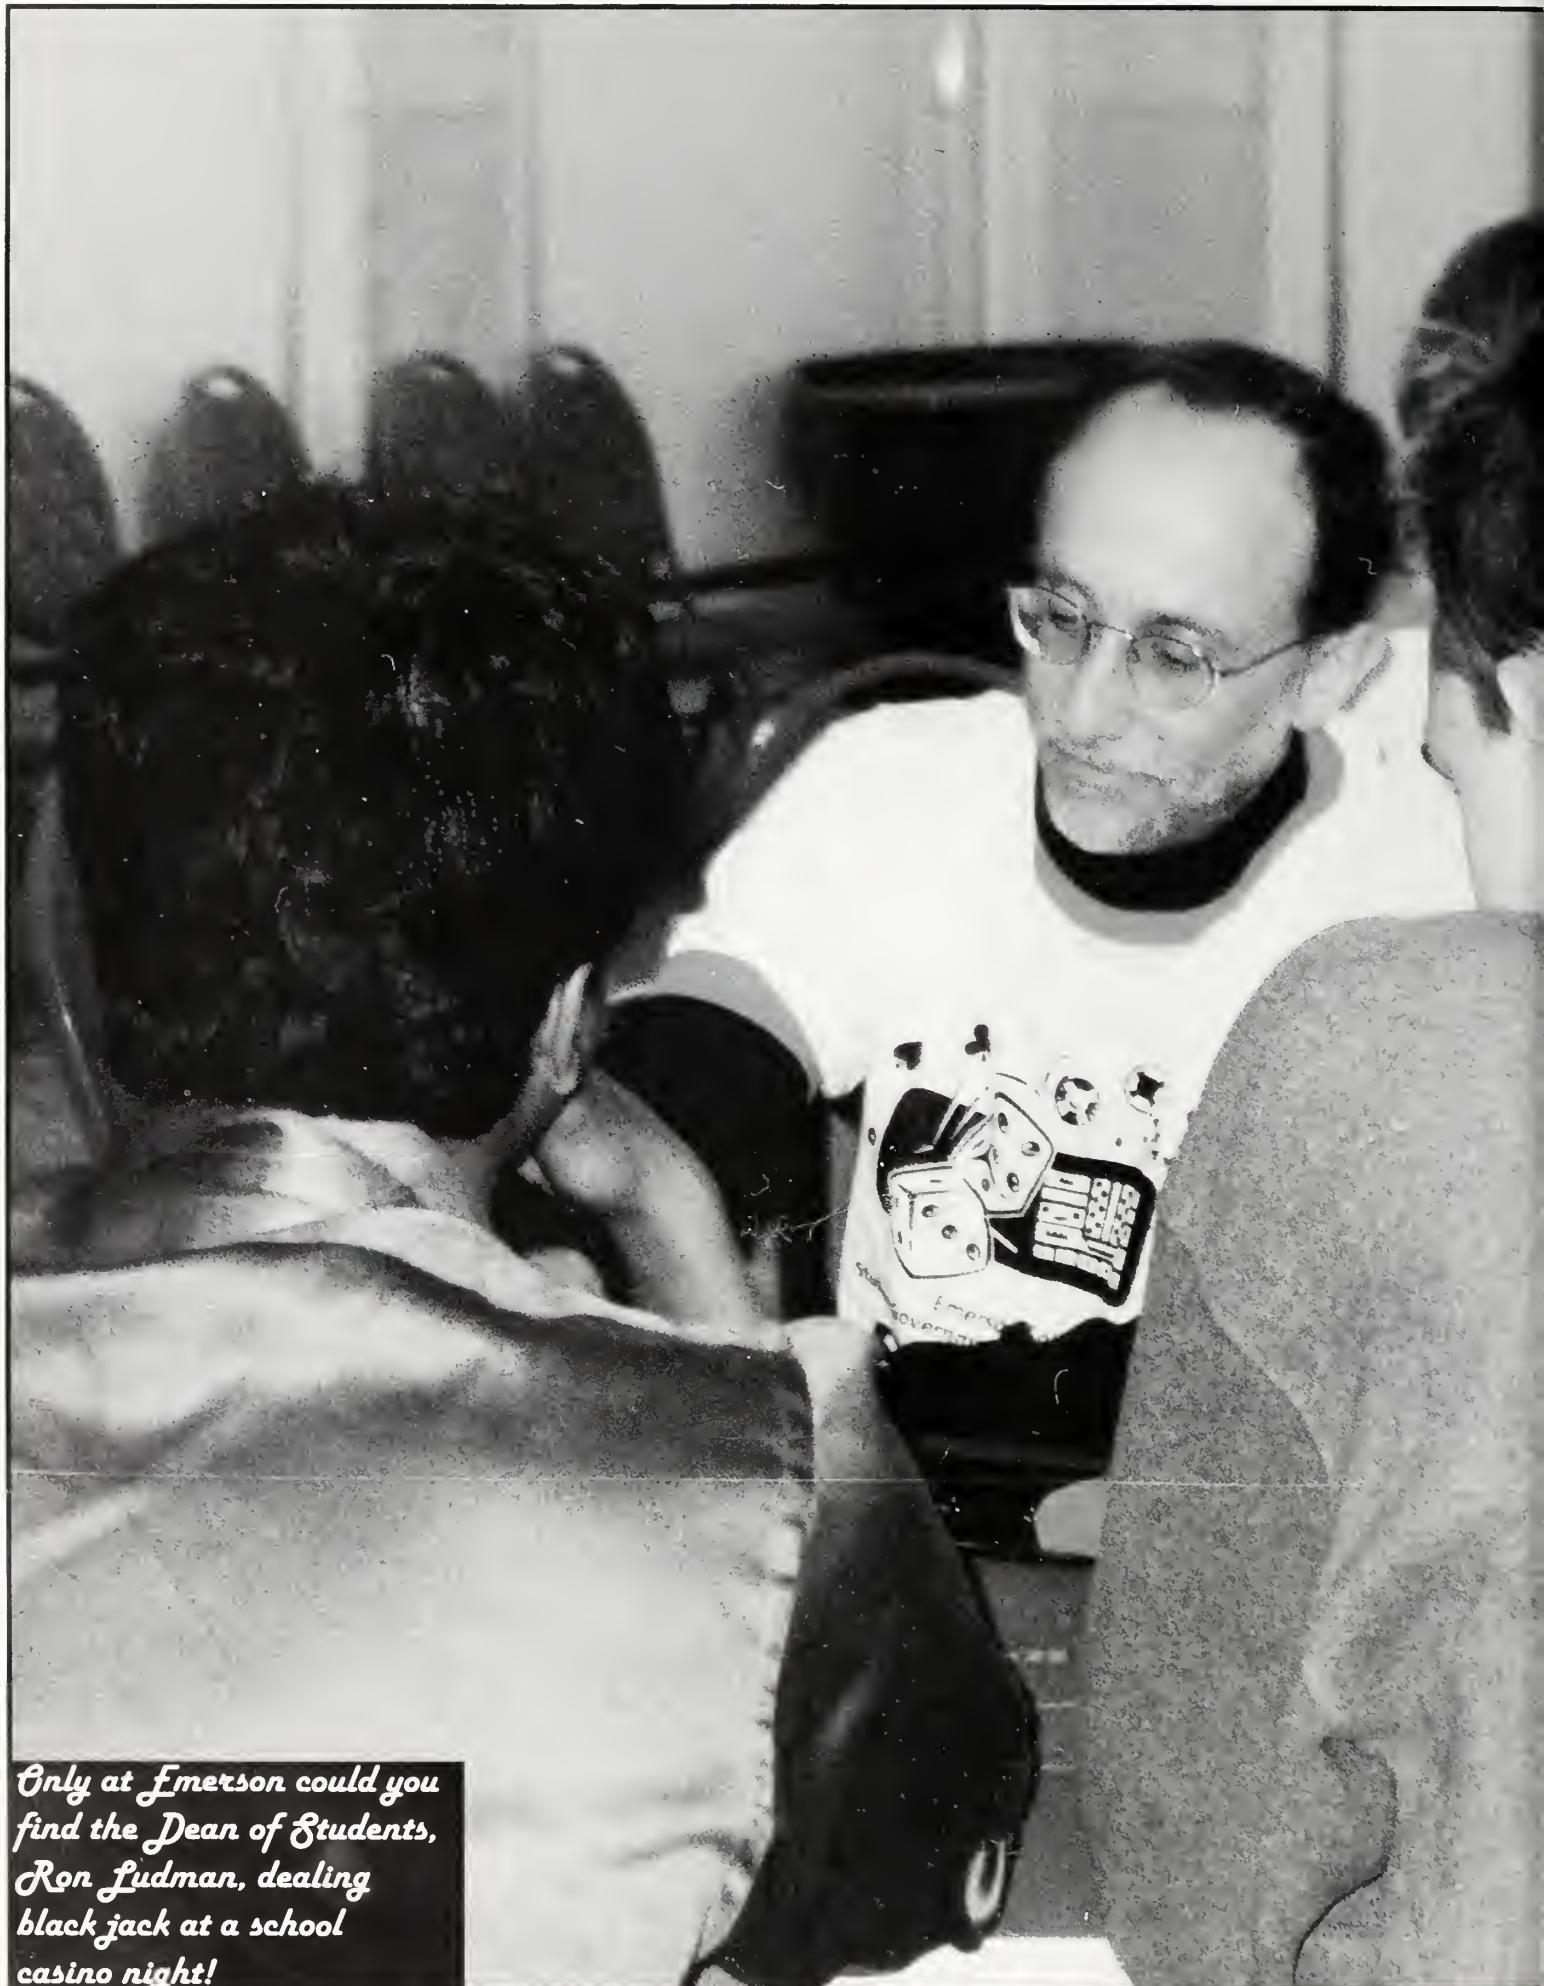

(Right) The newest Emerson member is the aforementioned Norman I. and Mary E. Tufte Performance and Production Center. A home for 2 television studios, 2 theatres, dressing rooms, labs, workshops, classrooms and faculty offices, it is named in the memory of the parents of Emerson Trustee, Marillyn Zacharis in recognition of a lead gift toward the project.

(Above) Another conveniently located building, 216 Tremont Street, stands next to The Tam, an after-school "hangout." 216 houses the Center for Health and Wellness, the Bill Bordy Theater and Auditorium (formerly the Vault), and Off-Campus Student Services, not to mention the floors and floors of classrooms.

Athletics

Cross Country

The Emerson cross country team ended their season on a strong note with a second place finish in the GNAC championship meet. Their overall record was 31-18, and all runners set personal best times in the 5K. For the third consecutive season Katrina Kozarek '03 was the league MVP, winning every race she competed in the regular season. Vanessa Smith '06 was also praised for being an outstanding conference all-star.

The women's volleyball team finished the season with a 14-8 overall record and a second consecutive qualification to the GNAC Championship Tournament. Emerson College volleyball players Maribeth Balon '05 (Lincoln, RI) and Kelly Hogan '07 (Salem, NH) have been named to the 2003 Great Northeast Athletic Conference Women's Volleyball All-League Team. Balon, a second-team selection, was the Lion's top hitter in 2003, leading the team in kills (132) and hitting percentage (.250), a statistic in which she ranked fourth in the conference.

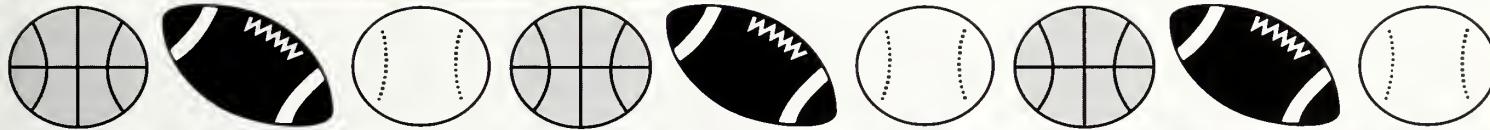

Volleyball

Men's Soccer

The men's soccer team made the most noise in the post-season by reaching the conference semi-finals. In his first year, Head Coach Jared Scarpaci's team went 10-6-1 during the regular season with an impressive conference record of 4-1-1. The Lions were led by senior captain Shawn Mazerall, who, according to Recruiting Coordinator Stanford Nance, is the best player in the GNAC. (The Berkeley Beacon- Mira Wassef)

Although it was a rebuilding year for the women's soccer team, Head Coach Kristin Parnell's squad finished with an overall record of 8-7-2 and 5-3-1 in the GNAC.

The Lady Lions were led by junior co-captain Ellen Boss and sophomore Amanda Pinto. Pinto was the team's leading scorer and led the league in scoring last season. Parnell also praised the efforts of goal keeper Sophia Lee, midfielder Tina Danforth, transfer Caitlin Lee, and freshmen standouts Alicia Lombardi and Mandy Morrison. (The Berkeley Beacon- Mira Wassef)

Women's Soccer

Men's Basketball

On the team in 2003- 2004: Ryan Shibley, Jay O'Connell, Graham Stephen, Michael Wholey, David Miller, Aaron Young, Keyon Hodges, Gabe Karter, Steve Georgoulis, Robert Hennigan, Jeffrey Schmidt, Tyson Tyler, and Daniel Zinchuk. Emerson senior guard Rob Hennigan scored 27 points in a February 5 game against Suffolk University to become the first player in the history of the Great Northeast Athletic Conference to reach 2,000 career points. Congrats!

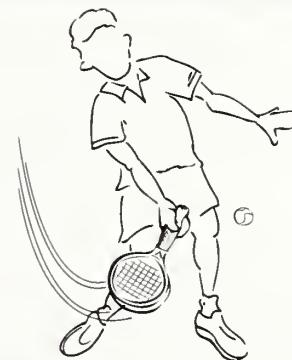

It is an exciting time for women's basketball at Emerson. With an experienced new coach and a motivated group of student-athletes ready to play, the future for Emerson College Basketball looks promising. To brighten this future further, a new athletic facility complete with a brand new basketball court, outstanding team locker facilities, and an additional weight room is being built right in the midst of the Emerson campus on Boylston Street.

Women's Basketball

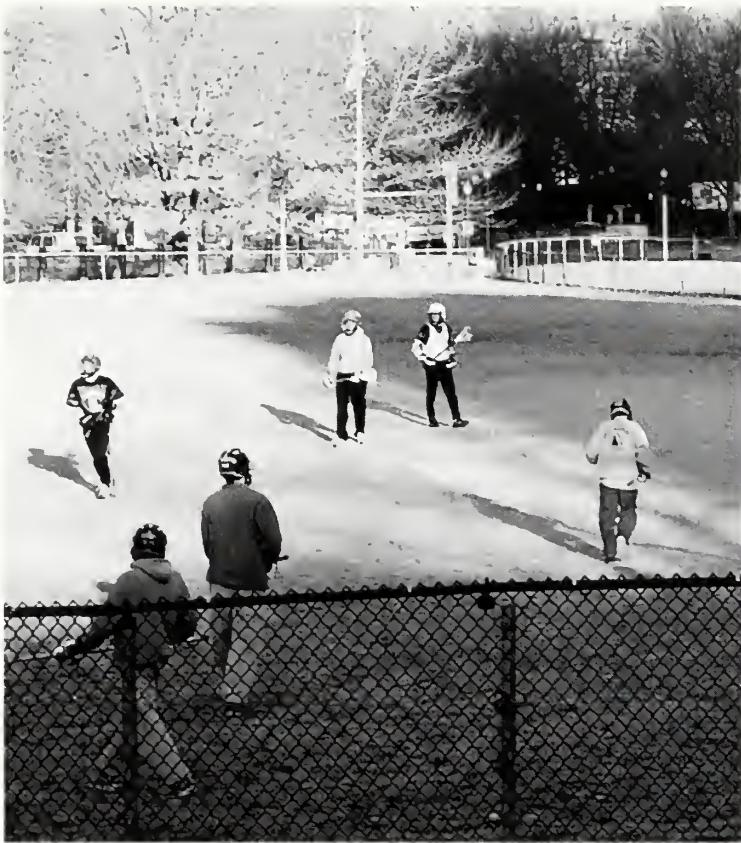

Men's Tennis

Keith Warner took over the men's tennis program at Emerson College in 1999 bringing with him vast amounts of tennis experience from across the globe, including vice-captaining the 1999 Trinidad and Tobago team in the Davis Cup. At the time of publication, Emerson's Men's Tennis team was fast approaching the start of their 2004 season.

The women's tennis team fought its way to three wins in 2003 despite occasionally struggling to fill the line-up. First year coach Gary Chafetz was able to establish a foundation of solid play with his team, and looks forward to 2004 as a break-out year for the program.

Women's Tennis

Men's Lacrosse

Coach Scott Dupuis's involvement with the sport of lacrosse is one of many facets of his lifetime dedication to athletics and recreation. This year's team includes: Ryan Van Fleet, Jeremy Walter, Nick Periera, Christian Silverthorne, Pat Rooney, Vinny Sant'Anna, Mark Outwin, Sam Watkins, Trevor Cruikshank, Dan Mercadante, Lew Powell, Bill Vigne, Zandy Papps, Brian McGackin, Gordon Duke, John Hann, Scott Shipley, Erik Schuitens, and Jeremy Powers.

Marissa Gelband took over the reigns of the Women's Emerson College Lacrosse program in February of 2004 at 21 years of age. She is believed to be the youngest head coach in any sport at any four year college in the country. What Marissa lacks in age, she makes up for in lacrosse experience. Marissa, a graduating member of the Emerson College Class of 2003, competed for three years for the Lions and was the team's leading scorer each year. Marissa is assisted by Lauren Blanda. Lauren is just a year older than Marissa and was both a teammate and classmate at Emerson. This year's team showed a lot of school spirit and pride. Way to go girls!

Women's Lacrosse

Baseball

At the time of publication, the baseball team has been practicing hard for their 2004 Season. Along with their awesome coach, Mitch Lebowitz, this team is a hard-working crew of determined Emerson Lions willing to put a ton of effort into their baseball art. Additionally, these lucky baseball guys are heading to the sunny state of Florida to practice some ball during Spring Break.

Coach Phil McElroy and the Lion softball women have been practicing hard and are sure to make Emerson College proud during the 2004 season. Like the baseball team, they will be spring training in Florida. The 2004 team includes Pamela Anton, Ellen Boss, Jennifer Boyden, Lauren Martin, Jamie Bunton, Laura Burke, Hadley Catalano (Capt.), Kylie Catlin, Sara Toga Collings, Heather Drobizarz, Amy Duskiewicz, Aubrey Gibavic, Jodie Jordan, Sara Patch (Capt.), Emily Patrick, Juliana Schopper, Kate McDonough, and Meghan Desrosiers.

Emerson Review

The Emerson Review is an award winning literary magazine dedicated to the publication of short stories, poetry, feature articles, book & film reviews, comics, and black and white photography by students, guest alumni, and faculty members. Founded in the spring of 1970, it holds a tradition of quality work and free expression of ideas. All Emerson College students and alumni are welcome to submit to the Emerson Review. All submissions are judged anonymously and impartially by the staff.

Gangsters in Concrete is a biannual student publication that publishes experimental prose, poetry, creative nonfiction, and photography produced by undergraduates. The staff of the most recent Gangsters in Concrete publication was led by Editor-in-Chief, Rachael Brown.

Gangsters in Concrete

Just Kidding Around

Just Kidding Around (formerly Team Players) is Emerson's theatre group that performs and provides unique theatre experiences exclusively for children. It performs on campus and at local schools and after school programs where it creates an "interactive" theatre environment with children of all ages. Emerson students are encouraged to become directors, designers, producers, actors, writers and media persons for Just Kidding Around.

The mission of this organization is to support theatrical productions fully produced, directed, managed, and otherwise staged solely by students of Emerson College. The genres we sponsor include, but are not limited to, musical theater, straight plays, student written pieces, and experimental theater. Our goal is to empower any Emerson student with a vision for theatrical production to see his or her vision on stage.

Chocolate Cake City runs on a daily basis. They are an all inclusive comedy organization which primarily unites film, writing and acting majors. All shows contain theme, recurring characters, original movies, sketches, plot lines, and cake. Chocolate Cake City doesn't require auditioning, so anyone at Emerson can join. They put on two shows each year and additionally performed at the No Booza Palooza and Equity Fights AIDS activities this year. Chocolate Cake City was founded in 2002.

Hands on Experience is an organization that was created to learn about and promote the awareness of deafness and sign language as a form of communication. This is done through regular performances and workshops which incorporate music, poetry, dance, and the performing arts with sign language. Membership is open to all students regardless of major or deaf related experience.

Hands on Experience

Newman Club

The Newman Club provides opportunities for Catholic students to develop their faith and work in sponsoring social, educational, spiritual, and service-oriented events. Students come together for debate, prayer, and fun! Led by president Steve Scott, the Newman Club is open to all students and often comes together with other religious groups at Emerson College for activities and events.

WERS FM (88.9 MHz) is New England's oldest non-commercial radio station. WERS reaches a potential audience of three million people with its eclectic blend of music, news, and affairs programming. It is student run and professionally managed. This photo represents only a small number of the staff members running the station.

WERS

EVVY Awards

The EVVY Awards ceremony is a major event in the Emerson community. The EVVY Awards are Emerson's equivalent to the EMMY Awards, where distinguished industry professionals give awards honoring Emerson's best student work in a variety of categories representing almost every major at Emerson College. The 2004 EVVY Awards ceremony took place on May 15 in Emerson's very own Majestic Theatre.

The Emerson Dance Company welcomes both the accomplished and beginning dancers and choreographers. The group offers opportunity and growth in the areas of performance and choreography. They also offer Master Classes by well-known choreographers and dancers, which are open to the entire Emerson community.

Emerson Dance Company

The Emersonian

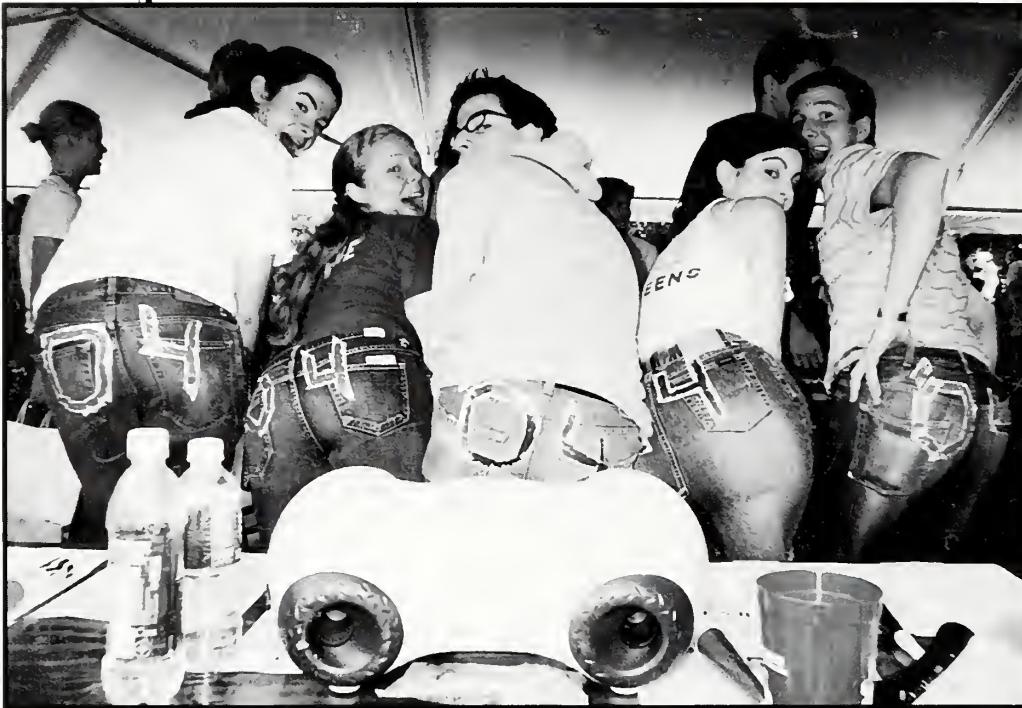

The Emersonian is the College's yearbook. It is a permanent chronicle of the days, people, and events of the academic year. It is completely student-run. Students interested in photography, advertising, layout, or copy editing often contribute to the editorial staff. The 2003-2004 Emersonian Staff is led by Editor-in-Chief, Ashley Huneycutt, and includes: Stacy Hunsberger, Brian Particelli, Alia Hamada, Meredith Moran, Julie Wilson, Michael Lucey (not pictured), and Neil Gabrielson (not pictured).

The student-run Emerson Independent Video (EIV) organization serves the College community and gives students hands-on experience in all phases of television production in a professional environment. EIV produces a number of television shows including the College's annual EVVY Awards, Emerson's equivalent to the EMMY Awards. It also produces five live-to-tape thirty-minute news broadcasts weekly, as well as International News broadcasts twice weekly.

Elections are held in the late spring for the following academic school year. Responsibilities of the Junior Class Officers include: class meetings and programs. President: Kristen Belcher, VP: Mary Krupka, Senator: Steve Scott, Secretary: Melissa Gaynor, Treasurer: Will Anderson, Representatives: Christina Kumka and Valeria Amato.

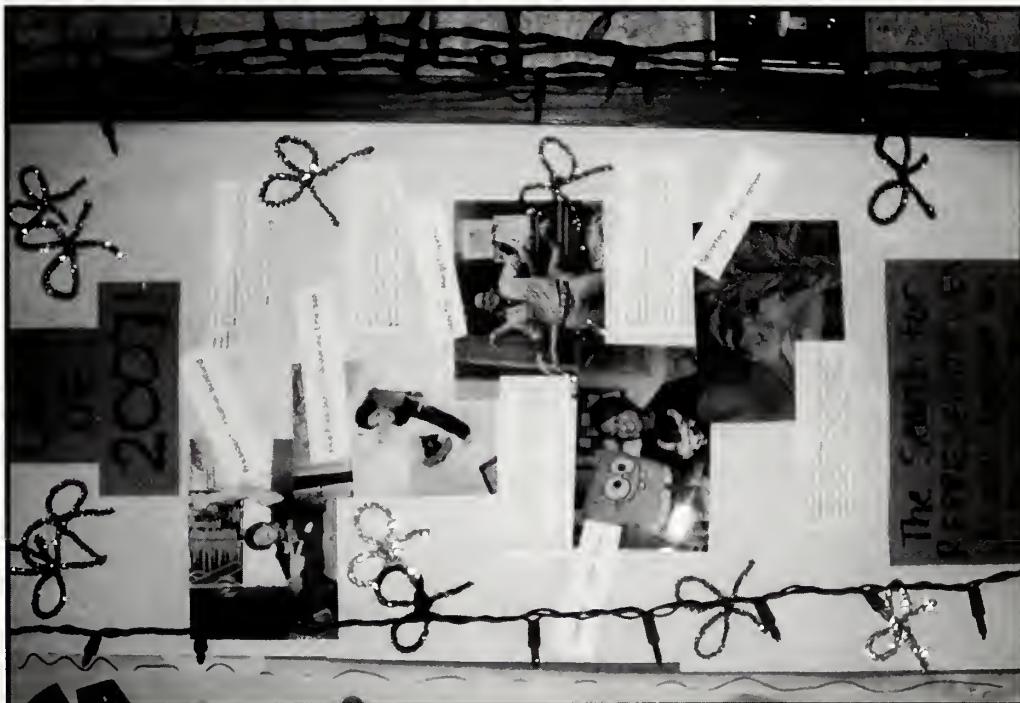

Class of 2005

Class of 2006

Each year, the classes elect officers to represent them in Student Government matters and facilitate co-curricular and social events. Elections are held in the late spring for the following academic school year. Responsibilities of the Sophomore Class Officers include: class meetings, newsletters, and programs. President: Maryn Herberg, VP: Katie Brydon, Senator: Katie Caponera, Secretary: Shannon Keaveney, and Treasurer: Jennie May.

The Freshman Class Council is elected in early December. They meet weekly to develop a class constitution, plan programs, learn about getting involved at Emerson and prepare for leadership positions. Students interested in running for a Class office their first year must participate in and successfully complete the Freshmen Class Council program. All first year students are invited to get involved.

Class of 2007

Student Government Association

The Student Government Association was formed to "establish an effective student government, represent student interests, establish and facilitate all student organizations, act as a liaison between the student body, the administration, and the Trustees, and promote and protect the rights of the students ..." SGA allocates and monitors funds to student organizations and plans and executes student activities and programs for the campus. It also actively protects the rights of the student body.

Greek Council is the official governing body of Emerson College that recognizes all Greek Letter Organizations. It is comprised of delegates from all recognized fraternities and sororities. They collectively work to govern all Greek Organizations, promote Greek Life on campus, and work on projects to serve the college and surrounding Boston community.

Greek Council

Sigma Pi Theta

Sigma Pi Theta is a local, social sorority that is committed to sisterhood, trust, and love. Sigma Pi Theta emerged at Emerson College in 1979 as a support group for women. They are dedicated to stimulating unity, growth, support, and awareness among the women of Emerson College. They encourage the growth of the individual, the sorority, and the Emerson College community via workshops and activities held throughout the year.

Alpha Pi Theta is a local social fraternity with goals of brotherhood, love and trust established in 1946. The brothers have carried on that tradition through their spirit, enthusiasm and dedication to Emerson. The brotherhood is actively concerned with the welfare of the fraternity and the College. Alpha Pi Theta has always maintained the individual ideals of each member in order to broaden and strengthen the fraternity. Alpha Pi Theta sponsors various events on-campus.

Alpha Pi Theta

Zeta Phi Eta

Founded at Northwestern University in 1893, and established at Emerson in 1908, Zeta Phi Eta is the oldest national group of its kind. Zeta bonds together individuals committed to the communication arts and sciences, while providing opportunities for sharing professional interests through worthwhile activities. The sisters and brothers of Zeta Phi Eta are involved with the campus community, also working with many outside organizations, such as the AIDS Action Committee and the American Cancer Society.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon
(SAE) was colonized as a local chapter Phi Alpha on April 22, 1999 after a thirteen-year formation period. Sigma Alpha Epsilon brings a one hundred forty three year old tradition of serving its member schools and communities through various social and charitable endeavors to Emerson College.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Alpha Epsilon Phi

Alpha Epsilon Phi is a national social sorority, originally founded in 1909, dedicated to helping women become the best they can be. The sorority prizes individuality as much as they prize togetherness, fostering friendships, and a sense of belonging that lasts a lifetime. By becoming a part of AEPsi, you're connected to sisters from Atlantic to Pacific in the many chapters that span the nation, in addition to the sisters you'll have at Emerson. One of a kind, all together- that's AEPsi!

A professional sorority founded at Emerson in 1902, Kappa is committed to serving the College and local community. The sisterhood fosters the ideal of nurturing professional, strong, and independent women. The sisters expect and demand the highest and best standards for every active member. Named Organization of the Year for 1999-2000, Kappa feels this responsibility has been potent in making the society count as a valuable asset to the College.

Kappa Gamma Chi

Phi Alpha Tau

Founded in 1902, Tau is the nation's oldest professional communicative arts fraternity. Originally created to foster debate, Phi Alpha Tau has evolved with Emerson over the past 100 years to include all areas of the communicative arts. The fraternity presents the Joseph E. Connor Award annually to outstanding leaders in the communicative arts and hosts the All-College Press Conference.

Emerson International supports the College's growing international population and promotes cultural awareness on campus. The picture representing Emerson International was taken at the International Festival, an event Emerson International puts on every year. At the Festival, students can experience food and entertainment from a variety of cultures.

Emerson International

CPLA

The Communications, Politics and Law Association (CPLA) works to awaken students' interest in the political process. They collaborate with a wide range of Emerson students and organizations to ensure that all voices on campus are heard. This photo is from the Organization's visit with Presidential hopefuls. Along with John Edwards (pictured), the group met with Howard Dean and Carol Moseley-Braun, along with many others.

The Emerson Debate and Forensics Society is here to help you refine your public speaking and performance skills with formal tournaments in areas such as debate, impromptu, performance poetry and fiction, persuasive and informative speaking, humor and entertainment speech, and dramatic and comedic interpretation. They compete on a National Level with schools from around the country and get professional assessments of their performances.

Emerson Debate and Forensics Society

Earth Emerson

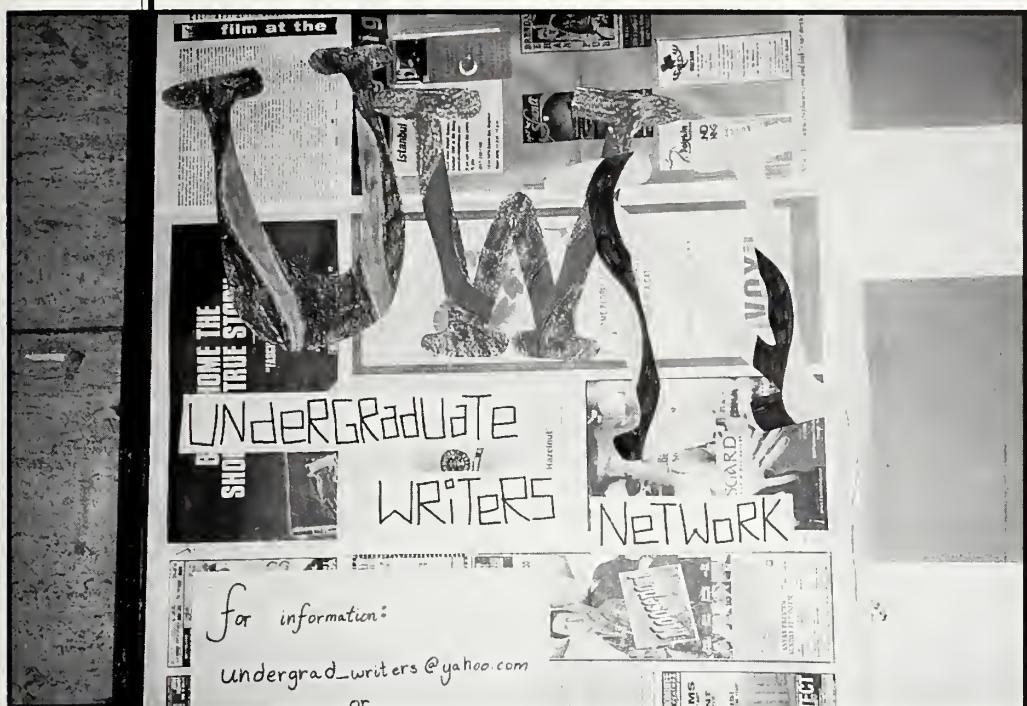

Earth Emerson is Emerson's only environmental group. They sponsor the campus recycling program and venture on fun trips like mountain and rock climbing. Earth Emerson meetings are open to all students at Emerson. Students are encouraged to contact Earth Emerson to volunteer as recycling coordinators in their dorms. As a group, Earth Emerson travels around the city of Boston trying to keep the city clean in any way they can.

Hyena is a group of meddling kids who travel in their mystery machine solving crimes and demasking ghosts. They also create and publish a humor magazine every semester featuring Emerson's most talented writers and artists- at least that's what their moms tell them. While Hyena is a student-run comedy magazine, the staff also puts a mock newspaper to press often to parody Emerson's own Berkeley Beacon.

Hyena

The Undergraduate Writer's Network

The Undergraduate Writers Network promotes interaction between writing majors and faculty while sponsoring activities such as poetry slams and readings for all Emerson students to attend. Writing, Literature and Publishing majors are encouraged to learn more about the Undergraduate Writers Network to focus on their further endeavors.

Jimmy's Traveling All-Stars is a technically oriented comedy group founded in 1999. Jimmy's Traveling All-Stars seeks to promote comedy through the use of both live and taped sketch performances, with a preference toward video. The 2003-2004 members include: Dave Burdick, Max Goldberg, Dan Gordon, Mike Price, Mike Purwin, Joseph L. Roberts, and Vanessa Rohrer.

Jimmy's Traveling All-Stars

Musical Theatre Society

MTS provides opportunities for participating in outstanding musical production numbers on and off campus. Annually, MTS is responsible for Cabaret Players Productions and co-producing a major Spring Musical with the Performing Arts division performed at Emerson's Majestic Theatre in Boston's theatre district. MTS also sponsors special guest appearances by leading musical theatre personalities. MTS is open to all members of the college regardless of their field of study.

Gauge is a student run, design-oriented magazine completely produced by and for Emerson College students. Its goal is to incorporate the various fields of study offered at Emerson into a singular publication, and to push the boundaries of the magazine format.

Gauge.

Lauph

This is a comedy publication specializing in long-form humor essays and workshops for comedy writers. Open auditions for writers, artists, photographers, and layout are held annually.

The purpose of this organization, created in the fall of 2002, is to promote creativity, education of music and diversity with regards to the A Cappella Scene at Emerson and in the Boston Community. The group provides entertainment for a variety of on and off campus events. The 2004-2005 officers include: Co-Presidents: Kim Johnson and Caitlin Reid, VP: Liz Edwards, Treasurer: Mike Wright, and PR Chair: Erin Riley.

Noteworthy

Frames Per Second

Frames Per Second (FPS) is a student run organization dedicated entirely to teaching professional film production. It is the only organization on campus that involves many students in the pre-production, production, and post-production of films. It offers an opportunity for students to learn every aspect of film making, hands on, before they reach their first production class. FPS turns students into teachers.

Through teamwork, determination, and the exploration of current technologies, members of Warlords will create films/digital videos in the genre of action and all sub-action genres and crossovers.

Warlords

EC Dance Team

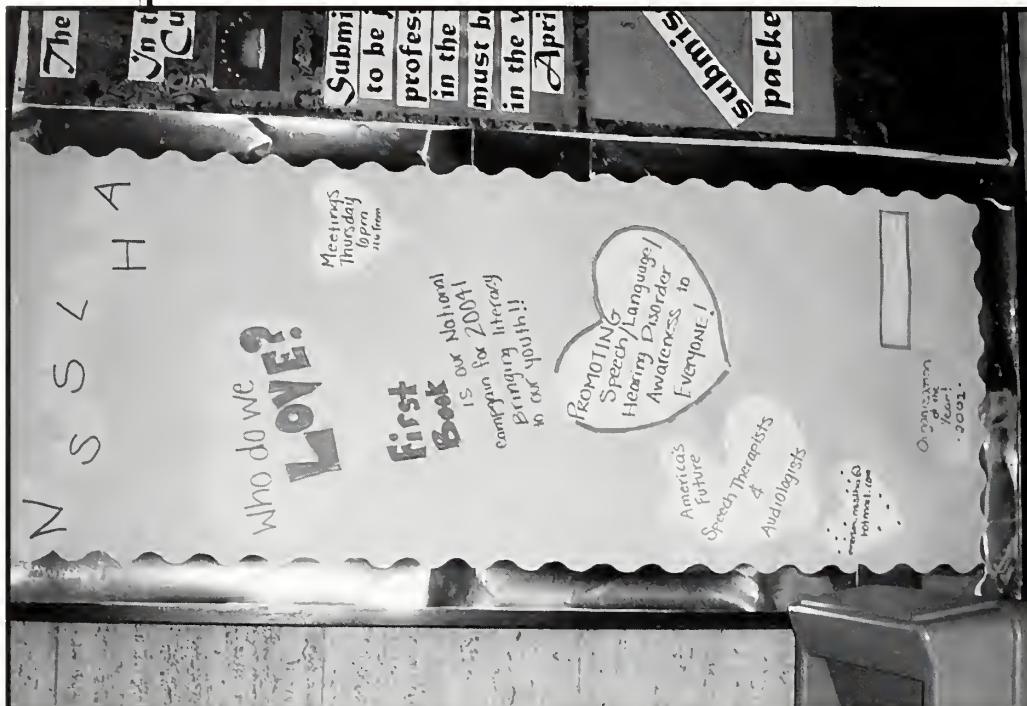

The EC Dance Team is dedicated to promoting spirit at Emerson College. The team came together in the fall of 1999 with the intention of performing cheers, dances, and stunts at the school's NCAA basketball games. The EC Dance Team is also very involved in co-sponsoring events with other departments and organizations.

Swolen Monkey Showcase
...is fully aware that it has misspelled "swollen." The group performs original material throughout the year at scheduled showcase performances on campus and at Boston's comedy clubs. Auditions are held each semester for students interested in comedy writing and/or performing. Membership is open to those students interested in production and advertising aspects of the organization.

Swolen Monkey Showcase

NSSLHA

The National Student Speech, Language, and Hearing Association encourages professional interests among Emerson students in the study of normal and disordered human communication behavior. All Emerson students have the opportunity to become members of this national organization. The 2004-2005 officers include: President: Erin Artz, VP: Caitlin Rivet, Secretary: Ellen Boss, and Treasurer: Jillian Kronteras.

The mission of The Shakespeare Society is to provide an opportunity for Emerson students, of all majors and levels, to read, discuss, explore, and perform the works of Shakespeare, and related material, through weekly discussion groups and productions. The group also wants to promote the knowledge of and interest in Shakespearean literature and theater in the greater community through educational outreach, workshops, and public performances.

Events

Orientation 2003

(Above) The OLs help the new students of the Little Building move in. According to certain OLs, the process this year went much faster than in years past! Could they be bragging? Who them? No! Never!

Family Weekend 2003

(Above) Family Weekend Committee Members
Christopher O'Neill, Katie Caponera and Katie Oliveri.

(Above) Stacy Hunseberger and Kelly Shea join their families on a Duck Tour of Boston. The tours were offered to the participants of Family Weekend on Saturday, October 25th.

(Above) The 2003 Family Weekend Committee: (top row)
Katie Caponera, Christopher O'Neill, and CJ Baranello
(middle row) Sara Brookshire, Katie Brydon, Katie Oliveri, Sara Sheckells (holding Sophia Duffy, daughter of Sharon Duffy) and Katrina Schroeder (bottom row) Krista Gundersen and Christopher Larkin.

(Above) Johnson Lee joins his family at the Dessert Reception in the Bill Bordy Auditorium (formerly known as The Vault).

Above) This family enjoys the official Family Weekend Welcome.

(Far above) A captain of a duck boat briefs his passengers on the rules of the Duck Boat and what they will see on their tour.

80s and 90s Night

(Above) C.J. leads the crowd in a rousing rendition of "If You're Happy and You Know It, Clap Your Hands!" No, it's not necessarily an 80s or 90s tune, but that's when we all learned it!

Above) Does size really matter? ...When it comes to mohawks it does!

(Far above) These sexy girls prove that side pony tails will never die... but should.

Equity Fights AIDS

(Left) Cara, Eddie and Sam are smiling over the fact that Emerson's EFA program has raised over $10,000 towards AIDS education, research and prevention in its 3 year history .

Free For The Weekend

(Above) Free yo-yos given out to the students went to good use. People were "walking the dog" and going "around the world."

Casino Night

(Above) Emerson senior, Frances Bordlee, deals a game of black jack to an intense group of Emerson students trying to win back all the chips they lost throughout the night.

(Above) Dean Ron Ludman dealt black jack once again at this 4th annual Casino Night--this time to two serious players.

Hand Me Down Night

(Above) These two ladies danced the night away after the dinner and awards came to an end.

(Far above) Jennifer Greer presented Hannah Kane with the prestigious Visionary Award.

(Above) Michael Weiler went home with the Hand Me Down Night Award of Distinction, but first quickly posed with the lovely Krista Gundersen.

Sara Higginson-
You have given me so much happiness since you were born and you continue to do so each and every day. Words cannot fully describe how very proud I am of you. I admire your accomplishments and your dreams and I know you will achieve them all.

You are truly a wonderful person and I love you with all my heart.

Congratulations! I wish you all the success and happiness life has to give!

All My Love,
Mom

tell them so well.

To our dear Leticia Esperanca:

It is with such great pride that we see you graduating today! Time has gone by so fast and you have grown into a beautiful, independent young woman.

From our "Xuxulein" with the "Xing-Xing" hat, from the "bagunceira" and the "Mami to com fome!!!"-Xu, you have shown us that you are more and more able to understand life and its challenges!

Be happy in whatever you choose as your future path, and always remember that we are here to offer you our greatest support and admiration!

Love always,

Papi, Mami, Denise, and Omi

*Jennifer Erin Lurey,
From the moment you were born, you have had a gnawing desire for success. Your instincts have always been right on the nose, and you have stirred to reach every goal that you have ever set for yourself. You are my shining star, from impersonating Madonna to being in "The Waterboy" movie with my classmate, Emerson alum, Henry Winkler.*

Keep reaching for those stars—the Hollywood ones, too—as you continue to "cast" light on your illustrious career. I am more proud of you than you could ever imagine! I am especially proud and elated that we are mother and daughter Emerson alumni.

*I love you!

Letter to Lisa on her graduation.

Dear Lisa,

On my 51st birthday when you were 14yo, you reminded me "to pick more daisies" in life and hoped you were a daisy to me, "not a weed." Now, seven years later I can assure that if there is an "Angel flower" you are that, for "You are my special angel." And if there is a "Goody-goody flower," you are that, too, for you will always be my "Goody-goody girl." Love songs are still my favorite, but I'm always willing to learn a new kind of song. So I wish that you, too, will pick lots of daisies and be willing to learn new songs in life. Congratulations on your achievement, accomplishments, and graduation.

Love, Mom & Dan

Dear Dean,

My name is Patty. I am 34 years old. It is my duty to tell you about my sister Lisa. She is viable, kind, and smart. SHE wants to graduate from your Emerson College. She'll understand if she can't but she might be heartbroken. I love LISA, and I want her to graduate. MAYBE if you give her a chance LISA will turn out O.K. Please write and tell if you'll give her a chance. Who knows, I might graduate someday. Your friend, Patty Hennessy
P.S. Wow! She graduated!!!
P.P.S. Thanks Dean!!!

Dearest Lance,

Recalling your initial desire to go to Lugano, Switzerland, we hope the choice of Emerson has proven to be the best choice. We were deeply touched by your written appreciation of the wonderful time you spent in Europe during that one semester in Holland. Not only did it enrich your personal experience in life, but would have opened new vistas of other cultures and learning experiences.

*We are both proud and happy to see the day has arrived for you to complete the initial stage of a foundation upon which you will build into a solid, rewarding, and fulfilling career. Bravo to you for passing with honours.
With our love and Best Wishes to the beginning of a successful and prosperous future.*

*Much love,

Dear Rhiina Shamsi:

Congratulations on your graduation from Emerson College.

A blessing to each of us, and the world, from the day of your birth!

You always make us proud.

Dancing school, gymnastics, swimming and tennis, softball and art, field hockey goalie, drums and piano - go girl go! From your first days, through FNX and WERS, you entertained us, made us happy, made us laugh - all the while strong, determined, an advocate for womankind, a believer in and seeker of the truth!

A shayna punim to the present day beautiful woman.

We wish you good health, much happiness, and continued success all your life. Go where your heart and your talents take you...soar baby, soar.

Much love from Safta, Grandma, Mom, Dad, Josh, Ben, Csiga, Peabody, and Roxy (the other star)

It all began in Virginia. You and your brother still make each other laugh!

In Grade School you were an amazing Dorothy!

Your first day of Pre-School in Virginia—your lunchbox was bigger than you!

In Hawaii, your first of many beach vacations...

At Emerson you have continued to thrill and impress us by graduating in 3 years, making the Dean's List, and being editor of this yearbook 2 years running!

In Germany you began dance lessons...

In Arizona with Grandpa you danced all night at the sock-hop!

Always an Arizona Girl!

At your 7th birthday party you lost your 2 front teeth!

Our love and admiration for who you are and what you have accomplished grows each year. You are an outstanding young woman! The world is yours!

Querida Lu,
É com grande orgulho que mais uma vez deixamos uma mensagem para você.
Que você continue brilhando sempre!
Nunca se esqueça do carinho e amor que sentimos por nossa querida Lu...
A Dona Thais te deixa um "HEY" e morre de saudades das suas roubadas de comida.
A Mars pede para você não furar a mala e tem saudades também dos nossos jogos de tranca.
"GANHEI"... desculpe mas desta vez foi a mãe e o pai...
Thais

Lu... Acabou a vida boa... agora comienza uma nova etapa da sua vida e novamente você vai sair vitoriosa. Desejo toda a sorte do mundo e deixo para você um CD "XUXA só para baixinhos" e "Será que tem um começo e fim?"

Beijos,

Feli

Lu, eu sei que você não vai furar a mala. Espero que continues trabalhando duro e assim quem sabe você vai descobrir "com quantos paus se faz uma canoa e o que está realmente escrito no gibi"...

Da sua eterna parceira de volley de praia... Mars

Eu sempre disse que você iria longe... mas não precisava ser tão longe...

Estou seguro que você vai mais longe ainda... e não se esqueça de que "Deixe para amanhã o que você não puder fazer hoje"

Sei que você aprendeu a fazer mil coisas de cada vez e isso te faz ser muito especial, ja que faz com alegria, entusiasmo e aquele jeitinho só seu que te faz uma pessoa maravilhosa.

Conte sempre conosco e estou seguro de que vai brilhar ainda mais.

Beijão do Gordo

LOVE, THE EMERSONIAN STAFF

Closing and Thanks

Just when you thought you'd seen it all, this book has come to an end. Due to an amazing staff, the 2003-2004 Emersonian was a success! My utmost thanks goes to Alia Hamada, Meredith Moran, Brian Particelli, Stacy Hunsberger, Michael Lucey, Julie Wilson, Jennifer Shugert, and Neil Gabrielson. You are all so talented and I truly enjoyed working with you. Words cannot express how lucky I feel to have had a staff like you. To Eddie Jones: Thank you, thank you, thank you! Without you, this book wouldn't be what it is. My sincere thanks to the parents of the graduating seniors for taking the time to be a part of the Senior Ads by sending in those wonderful baby pictures! Of course, my thanks goes out to Sara Sheckells, our advisor, for everything she does (especially for making sure you don't lock me in the Union when working late at night on a deadline!). And thank you to Finepoint Photographic for the senior portraits and countless events they shot--it was a pleasure having you around. Last, but surely not least, I'd like to thank John Carrier, our Herff Jones publishing representative. In my third and final year at Emerson, and working with you, I can only say it has been a privilege working with you and learning from you. This being my last book, I'm happy to say it is the one of which I am most proud. So many creative minds came together to produce the final product you see here. I can now proudly hang my yearbook editor's hat.

To my fellow seniors, congratulations, and good luck!
